153 CHURCHES ARE AHEAD OF 1936-1937 GIVING; 372 CHURCHES YET TO EQUAL LAST YEAR'S SUMS

Seventeen More Churches Added to List of Exceeders in February

During the month of February, 17 churches in the Synod of North Carolina surpassed the total contributed by them in the 1936-1937 fiscal year. Those 17, plus the 136 listed in the February issue of The Messenger, makes a total of 153 churches or mission points that have either equalled or exceeded the aggregates of the previous year.

Of the 153, Mecklenburg Presbytery has 28 churches; Fayetteville, 23; Orange, 22; Wilmington, 20; Winston-Salem, 16; Concord and Granville, 15 each; Kings Mountain 9, and Albemarle 5.

New-comers to this grouping last month were Beattie Memorial and Marion in Concord Presbytery; Vass in Fayetteville; Dallas and Rutherfordton in Kings Mountain; Albemarle, Plaza and Wilmore in Mecklenburg; Burlington Second, Grier's, Euphronia and Pittsboro in Orange; Chadbourn, Delgado, Elizabethtown and Oak Plain in Wilmington, and Hills in Winston-Salem Presbytery.

All 153 of the churches or mission points are as follows:

Albemarle Presbytery—Ballard's Mission, Bear Grass, Carraway Chapel, Grace Chapel, Roberson's Chapel.

Majority of Churches Lack Only Small Amounts of Reaching '36-'37 Totals

How many of the 372 churches or mission points in the Synod of North Carolina, who were yet to equal their 1936-1937 totals, will do so in the month of March? That question will be answered at the Orphanage as the gifts in the Loyalty Month are received here. Will 50% of the churches be transferred to that group which numbered 153 on February 28th?

That is possible, since there are a total of 326 churches, whose differences between that which was sent for 1936-1937 and that which had been forwarded to Barium in the first 11 months of 1937-1938 is $100.00 or less, and of those 326 churches, 152 of them lack less than $10.00 of coming up to last year's sums.

But, starting at the top flight, it is found that there are two churches which lack over a thousand dollars of equalling last year's totals; there are six churches ranging between $500.00 and $1,000.00; 38 between $100.00 and $500.00; 174 that lack between $10.00 and $100.00; 58 ranging between $5.00 and $10.00; 70 between $1.00 and $5.00, and 24 lack less than a dollar of surpassing last year's amounts.

The 372 churches are listed below, and the actual figures behind the 1936-1937 total is given in all instances except those churches that lack less than $10.00. Those are simply recorded alphabetically. Those churches follow:

Notice Treasurers

All treasurers of Churches, Sunday Schools and Auxiliaries are urged to place the final checks for the Orphanage in the mail not later than the morning of March 30th so that the contributions can reach the Orphanage on March 31st, the date when the 1936-1937 fiscal year ends. It may be impossible for some few checks to reach the institution by the 31st, so the receipt books will be open a few days to receive these. However, it is hoped that the majority of the funds will be received by the closing date, and that final receipts the early part of April will constitute only a small part of the income for the Loyalty Month.

REV. THOMAS C. COOK IS INSTALLED AS PASTOR

Impressive Service at Little Joe's Church Here on Sunday, Feb. 20th

Rev. Thomas C. Cook was formally installed as pastor of Little Joe's Church at Barium Springs on Sunday, February 20th, at an impressive morning service presided over by Rev. C. E. Raynall, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Statesville. The usual large congregation of the church was enhanced by several visitors on the day of the installation, with almost every available seat being occupied.

The sermon was preached by Rev. Carl W. McMurray, Ph.D., pastor of the Front Street Presbyterian Church in Statesville, who used, as his text for an effective and timely sermon, the 11th verse of the fourth chapter of Ephesians, when Paul wrote, "And he gave some apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers."

Rev. Geo. W. Hanna, who resides near Statesville and who had been pulpit supply pastor at Little Joe's for several months, delivered the charge to the pastor and did it feelingly, having experienced some of the possibilities in the work at the Orphanage through his supply work. Mr. H. A. Rouser, an elder in the First Church of Salisbury, also spoke feelingly in his charge to the congregation, since he had been intimately associated with Rev. Mr. Cook in Salisbury ever since Mr. Cook began his work in the Salisbury Second Church after graduating from the seminary.

Mr. Cook and his family have all been cordially welcomed at Barium Springs, and there has been an enthusiastic beginning of what is expected to be a very fruitful and glorious ministry.

The new minister is the second full-time pastor to serve Little Joe's Church. Until Rev. W. C. Brown came to Barium Springs in 1924, the pulpit was supplied only part time. When he came to Barium, the Orphanage underwrote his salary for whatever sum the congregation was unable to contribute, but within a few years it was found that the church could become self-sustaining. It has maintained that status since.

Preparations at Little Joe's Church, as in all others in the Synod, are now being made for the annual every member canvass.

S. S. MEALS

Giving by the Sunday Schools to the Orphanage in February was $95.86 less than in February, 1937, but the Sunday Schools continue to stay ahead of last year's total by virtue of larger responses in some other months. The net increase for the Sunday Schools for the first 11 months is $77.62.

This year, as in bygone years, the fourth Sunday Offerings in February were not received before the end of the month, for the fourth Sunday was on February 27th, and that did not give the treasurers time to get their Offerings to the Orphanage by the

SYNOD	$3,050.00	$359.36	4.1c	91.6c

The regular giving for the Synod of North Carolina in February was slightly less than the total for February, 1937, and neither was the Thanksgiving Offering received at Barium Springs last month as great as in the same month a year ago. However, the regular giving continues to be ahead of last year, with an advantage of $128.37 at the close of February, while the Thanksgiving Offering in hand was $8.085.43 less than what it was on February 28, 1937.

Taking the two together—the regular and Thanksgiving Offerings—the decrease from Synod was $7,957.06 over the identical comparative period of 1936-1937. This was equivalent to a per capita decline of 12.2 cents for each of the 83,005 Presbyterians in the Synod of North Carolina.

Wilmington Presbytery has the distinction of having shown a per capita increase in the first 11 months, and it is the only Presbytery in the Synod that can boast of any advance. Its increase was nominal—four-tenths of a cent per member—but that is more than any other Presbytery can claim.

The per capita decreases for the eight other Presbyteries were as follows: Albemarle, 29.9 cents; Kings Mountain, 19.6%; Concord, 16.5%; Mecklenburg, 14.1%; Granville, 13.9%; Orange, 10.8%; Winston-Salem, 9.9%, and Fayetteville 5.8%.

The following shows the Thanksgiving Offering that had been received from each Presbytery on February 28, 1937 and February 28, 1938.

Presbytery	1936 To 2-28-'37	1937 To 2-28-'38
Albemarle	$ 3,663.42	$ 2,226.14
Concord	10,276.34	8,688.43
Fayetteville	4,334.57	3,713.20
Granville	3,481.68	3,110.05
Kings Mtn.	3,908.83	3,072.29
Mecklenburg	11,691.18	9,748.89
Orange	7,749.28	7,097.33
Wilmington	2,103.38	2,094.52
Winston-Salem	3,590.81	2,963.21
Totals	$50,799.49	$42,714.06

Not a single Presbytery had given more Thanksgiving Offering than in 1938, though Wilmington Presbytery was almost on the positive side, with a difference of $8.85 in the Offerings of the two years. Other Thanksgiving Offering decreases were: Granville, $371.63; Fayetteville, $621.37; Winston-Salem, $627.60; Orange, $651.95; Kings Mountain, $836.54; Albemarle, $1,437.28; Concord, $1,587.91, and Mecklenburg, $1,942.29.

Additional Thanksgiving Offering will be received in March and when the books are closed on 1937-1938, a final comparative figure will be given for each Presbytery.

BARIUM'S PERFORMERS HAVE A GOOD SEASON

Two Championships Won.—Records Given of Wrestling and Basketball Teams

The winter sports activity of the varsity teams at the Orphanage have been concluded, with two championships in the bag for Barium aggregations. The Barium wrestlers won their fifth consecutive state high school championship in the annual meet at Chapel Hill, and the boys' basketball team won the state Orphanage championship in a tournament staged on the Junior Order court, near Lexington.

In dual meets, the Barium matmen won five matches, lost one and tied another. They defeated Durham high grapplers twice, 29 to 3 and 28 to 11; they won from Salisbury high twice, 19 to 12 and 22 to 11; they beat the Davidson College freshman, 19 to 13 early in the season, but the Davidson fresh tied the Barium matmen, 16 to 16, in the second match. Appalachian College's "B" team was the only one to take the measure of the Barium wrestlers and this was done by the close score of 12 to 9.

Barium's basketball quintet won the state Orphanage title in that sport last month when it defeated the Methodist Protestant Orphanage of High Point 39 to 24, and conquered Children's Home, of Winston-Salem, 20 to 19, in the finals. The Barium girls were eliminated in their first game by the close score of 17 to 15. The Raleigh Methodist Orphanage sextette were the winners.

The Barium Boys won 11 and lost 3 in their 14 South Piedmont Conference games, scoring a total of 416 points to their opponents' 302. David Spencer, Shannon and McCrimmon, regular members of the varsity, finished their basketball playing for the Orphanage this season. Spencer was credited with two of those victories over the Barium quint, while Moores-

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT MID-PIEDMONT TOURNEY

Copeland's Girls and Scotts' Boys Win Championships.—Several Awards Made

The seventh annual Mid-Piedmont Basketball Tournament was staged at Barium Springs, February 17-21, with the Copeland girls and the Scotts boys being declared champions after four days of intensive play. These were the triumphant aggregations from a field of 32 teams that started on Thursday, the number being equally divided between girls' and boys' contingents. It was the first time that Copeland's girls and Scotts' boys have won the tournament.

Attendance at the tournament surpassed all previous records in the seven-year history of cage play at Barium Springs when teams from a wide territory enter this contest. The receipts go to the Athletic Association fund and profits from the refreshment stand also go into that fund. The girls and boys at the Orphanage, who are members of Barium's basketball teams, act as sponsors for the visiting crews.

Officials of the tournament selected the following as members of the all-tournament teams:

Girls: Forwards, McAuley (Huntersville) and Eudy (Harrisburg); center forward, S. Ring (Copeland); guards, Bruner (Copeland), Sconce (Banoak) and Haigler (Bain).

Boys: Forwards, J. Ferebee (Mocksville) and Wright (Troutman); center, Feimster (Scotts); guards, VanPelt (Paw Creek) and Nesbit (Troutman.

Permanent loving cups were awarded to Copeland and Scotts and a cup presented that will become the personal property of a team winning the tournament three times. Gold basketballs went to individual members of the winning teams and silver basketballs to the members of the Bain girls'

(FORM OF BEQUEST)

"I give and bequeath to the REGENTS OF THE ORPHANS' HOME OF THE PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD OF NORTH CAROLINA, Incorporated Under the laws of the State of North Carolina, (HERE NAME THE BEQUEST.)

Many friends at the Orphanage extend sympathy to Mr. P. B. Lackey, manager of the chicken farm at Barium, in the death of his brother in Mooresville. His brother died the early part of February after a lingering illness.

Welcome, Mr. Cook! Make that a great, big, cordial, hearty and warm welcome! We're glad to have you here, and the Synod of North Carolina is glad that you are pastor of Little Joe's Church.

Attention is called to the treasurers to a box article on the front page, in which they are urged to send all their contributions and appropriations to the Orphanage as soon as possible after the final Sunday, March 27th. Our expenditure books close on March 31st, and if your funds don't reach the Home by that date, it will show up in the obligations the Orphanage have when the fiscal year of 1937-1938 is over. That box was used in the February Messenger, and we're using it again in this March copy for fear that you might have missed seeing it last month.

It is greatly regretted that the Thanksgiving Offering of 1937 is going to be in the neighborhood of $8,000 less than what it was in 1936. Repeated calls upon our church people in the fall and the unanticipated business recession that began in September were factors responsible for the decrease. As a matter of fact, we have a number of letters in our files specifically citing those two things as being responsible for the difference.

Congratulations to the 211 churches or mission points in the Synod of North Carolina which gave more to Barium Springs last Thanksgiving than in 1936, and special congratulations to the 50 of those 211 churches which gave the largest Offering to the Home in the past 12 years. We are proud of the first-named, and prouder still of the second group.

The financial status of the Orphanage on March 31st is going to depend a great deal upon the amount of money that the Home receives in this final month, which has been designated as Loyalty Month. At the time this is being written, it is too early in March to make a definite prediction as to what the obligations of the Home will be. However, all of the items against the Home are going to be current bills, except one small interest-bearing obligation.

On February 28th, 153 churches had surpassed the totals given to the Home in 1936-1937, and as the days of March are going by, quite a number of other churches are being placed in that category. These people are to be congratulated. In a large measure this is true: As goes the Thanksgiving Offering, so goes the giving of the church for the year, in comparison with that of the previous 12-month period. That's because the Thanksgiving Offering is generally about one-half of all that the Orphanage receives.

It encourages us tremendously to receive contributions sent specifically to be used in publishing the 23,000 copies of The Messsenger each month. In the 11 months that have passed, the Orphanage has received $73.03 for The Messenger. That amount will pay for the postage costs for almost five months. We hope other friends are going to voice their gratefulness for the paper by sending us contributions. Some places have publications for which a definite charge is made, but the policy here has always been to send The Messenger to as many Presbyterian homes in the Synod as names could be obtained. There isn't any thought of changing that policy.

The memorial fund at the Orphanage amounted to $664.05 in 11 months. This fund is made up of two kinds of gifts: Those sent in lieu of flowers for funerals, and memorial gifts honoring some loved one whom God claimed a number of years ago. Both kinds of memorial gifts have shown a marked increase this year. That has been clearly evident by scanning the memorial gifts listed in The Messenger each month.

If all of the churches in the Synod of North Carolina could give a sufficient sum of money in this closing month to equal the contributions made to the Orphanage in 1936-1937, the Home would receive $20,718.04, and that wouldn't include anything additional that the 153, which have already exceeded the gifts of last year, would send to Barium Springs. We had a little curiosity ourselves as to what the "churches behind" would aggregate, and decided to pass along the satisfaction that we made of our own curiosity. However, we know that much of the $8,000 Thanksgiving Offering difference won't be made up, for it takes a very special season to raise that much money.

Do you know of anyone who does not receive The Messenger? If so, use a postal card and send his or her name to us, and we'll be glad to add the name or names to our mailing list. We have to work on a revision of the list spasmodically when other duties slack up a bit, and consequently we don't get all of the people on the mailing list who should be there. Local Orphanage Secretaries can render a valuable service to the Home by furnishing us additional names. But, always be sure that The Messenger doesn't already come to some member of the family before new names are forwarded to Barium Springs. A certainty of this will avoid duplications.

—P. O. H.—

GIVING

Lillian D. Wald in American Magazine of January, 1938.

The most important lesson in giving I have ever received came from one of my neighbors on Henry Street.

Some time ago, a naturalized Rumanian immigrant came to me with a request which I was unable to grant. I carefully explained to him the reasons. Then, to ease his disappointment, I asked him for a little advice and help in finding a job for a blind jeweler in my block. We hoped to establish him with a new stand, but the whole matter rested on selecting a location that was promising. Said I, "We believe this will set our blind man up without asking for charity, but all will depend upon getting a suitable place." I did not ask for money.

Said my Rumanian friend in immediate response, "I'll give you a hundred dollars."

As he had come to me, asking a favor, and was offering his gift in impulsive reaction to my story, I was reluctant to take the money and so explained, adding, "If you go home and think it over and still want to send it, I have no right to refuse help for my blind neighbor."

Whereupon I received my lesson. Said my friend: "Miss Wald, it's me that wants to give the hundred dollars—the real me. If I go home and talk it over with my sons, they may say, 'Father, that's a lot of money.'

"Rich people would not, maybe, give so much, and the chances are I send you twenty-five dollars; but that would not be the real me. The real me says a hundred dollars." Then he took out his checkbook and made his sign (he had never learned to write) and left with me the check for one hundred dollars.

I should like to pass that lesson on to the world, because I am convinced that there is too little encouragement for people to be their real selves when giving. I do not like to see a person tricked into unwise or fanatical generosity through a sudden and calculated appeal to his emotions, but I do believe that we should be true to the warm, sympathetic, and adventurous spirit of giving which lies behind our masks no matter how cold and circumspect they may be. Women have told me that they were often thwarted in their program of giving by men who were close to them, who were too protective; that in making wills they were often discouraged from expressing their feeling for those in need. Generous men are sometimes called weak and are held up to good-natured ridicule by their wives and friends because they yield often to the noblest impulse that a human may have—to share what he has with others. And I have known children to be rebuked by their elders for giving away a treasured possession.

Beware lest those who admonish against unwise giving are not fortifying their own selfishness. "Let the government do it" is a mere defense. The desire to give is an emotion, your real feeling for human life on the earth. Its expression should be encouraged. The generous heart should be exalted. And the impulse to give should be carefully nurtured and educated, so as to serve most effectively in the world today.

"TO KEEP IT HOLY"

—From Charity and Children.

One of the precious things that have been lost to this hurried and noisy age is the peace and quiet of the Sabbath Day, especially the Sabbath afternoon. The manner of spending the afternoon has changed with the changing time.

There is no longer a long, quiet Sunday afternoon. Some people go to baseball games, some go to the golf links, some go to the movies, some go fishing, some work at filling stations, some sleep the time away and some help clutter up the highways with their automobiles. The last method is the worst of all as it endangers life and helps add to the carnage of the highway.

On Sunday morning many people go to Sunday School and to preaching services, but in these there is much activity, necessary activity, but very little quiet and repose of the soul. Godly people who deplore all of the noise and hustle and bustle of the day are powerless to do much about it.

One form of recreation after another has been added to Sunday's activities, not to say desecrations, until there is no longer a place of silence. Yet a period of silent communion with God is essential to a Christian who is desirous of walking with his God. It is essential to recapture the silence of the Sabbath day and that is physically impossible.

It remains therefore mandatory that a Christian shall find quiet of soul in the midst of noise. He has no control over his environment but he must have control of his own soul. "Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies" must become the living experience. He cannot keep people off the highways or golf links or out of the movies, but he can control himself and find silence in noise and rest in the midst of bustle.

He must remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.

Income Distribution

In the first 11 months of 1937-1938, which ended on February 28th, the Synod of North Carolina had regularly given $33,334.38 to the support fund of the Orphanage, with $15,148.63 of that coming from the Sunday Schools, $11,396.07 from the Church budgets, and $6,789.68 from the Auxiliaries. The total contributed was $128.37 more on February 28, 1938 than on the corresponding date a year ago.

Arranged according to percentages, the above distribution means that 45.4% has come from the Sunday School Offerings, 34.2% from the Church budgets and 20.4% from the Auxiliaries.

The distribution of the $33,334.38 according to organizations in each Presbytery is as follows:

News About the Alumni

Miriam Sanders, one of the two Barium alumni at Flora Macdonald College, recently wrote of her appreciation of the alumnae section of The Barium Messenger. Such appreciation as she voiced is an incentive to continue our efforts to publish an alumni column from time to time. In her communication, Miriam said that Iris Spencer had obtained some special work at Flora Macdonald and that she was mighty glad to get it. Miriam and Iris are both juniors at Red Springs, and will finish their four-year work in 1939.

We are today publishing some of the names of the Barium Springs alumni whom we have on the mailing list. Appearing today are the alumni in Charlotte, Statesville and those residing outside of North Carolina. Two things actuated this: One is to let various alumni know where their friends are located (we wish we had the maiden names of every one of the girls who have married but that wasn't available this time) and the second is to build up the mailing list.

If you know of any of the alumni residing in Charlotte, Statesville or anywhere else outside the bounds of North Carolina, won't you please send us their addresses? They will also be published from time to time, and in the meantime the mailing list of alumni will gradually build itself up until we have all of the alumni of the Home on it. Also, if some of the addresses listed have changed, please notify us accordingly, and we'll make the necessary corrections. If you know of a more complete address for some of them, we'll be glad to get that, too.

HOW MUCH DO YOU LIKE THE MESSENGER?

Ernest Milton, Treasurer,
Presbyterian Orphans' Home
Barium Springs, N. C.
Dear Sir:

Although I know that The Barium Messenger is sent to me gratis every month I want to make a personal contribution toward the publication of these 23,000 monthly copies, and am therefore enclosing a special gift of $..... for this particular phase of the work at Barium.

No. Organizations

There were very few new-comers to the ranks of the regular givers in February. Seven church budgets reported their initial gifts, only one new Sunday School reported Offerings for the first time, and six additional Auxiliaries made their first regular contributions of the year. The total organizations on February 28th was 226 Church budgets, 263 Sunday Schools and 194 Auxiliaries. The grand total of all was 683 separate organizations helping.

In March there should be a considerable advancement in each field of giving, for a number of organizations report on an annual basis and the gifts usually come in March.

The organizations in each Presbytery helping the Orphanage so far are:

A record of seven victories, six losses and one tie game was made by the Barium girls in the conference.
